WONDER

The Gig Harbor Chamber of Commerce and the City of Gig Harbor invite you to explore, breathe a little deeper and escape to wonder.

Whether it's your first glimpse across the Narrows Bridge or a familiar view you've missed, welcome to Gig Harbor. Here, time seems to slow the moment you arrive. The world softens just enough for you to notice more. A breath of salt air, a shimmer on the bay, the quiet tug of tide and memory.

This maritime city has always been shaped by water, history and community. From the first Native peoples to the Croatian immigrants who built its fishing traditions, Gig Harbor's story runs deep. That legacy continues today in working marinas, heritage museums and the timeless rhythm of tides that mark each day.

Yet it is often the quieter moments that invite you to linger. A stroll through downtown reveals locally owned restaurants, cozy cafés and boutiques tucked along the waterfront. Trails weave through forests that open suddenly to sweeping views of Mount Rainier. On any given evening, neighbors gather at waterfront parks, children play by the shore and diners share local flavors with a view.

Whether you come to visit, do business or make Gig Harbor your home, you'll find a place that welcomes both pause and possibility.

Because in Gig Harbor, wonder is never far.

It quietly surrounds you.

welcome to the wonder of Gig Harbor

Dear friends and visitors,

On behalf of the Gig Harbor Chamber of Commerce and Visit Gig Harbor, it is my great pleasure to welcome you to our charming harbor town along the sparkling shores of Puget Sound. If you're arriving from the east, you may have felt your shoulders drop and your breath deepen as you crossed the Narrows Bridge. Many of us locals feel that same sense of calm every time we return home. The moment you take in the sweeping water views and evergreen hillsides, it becomes clear — you've entered a place where the pace shifts, the air clears and a sense of wonder gently takes over.

Here, time moves a little differently. Whether you're visiting for a day, a weekend or a longer getaway, you'll discover experiences designed to help you slow down, reconnect and simply enjoy being present. Wander along our scenic waterfront, set out on a boating adventure, explore artisan galleries, browse boutique shops or savor a memorable meal at one of our award-winning restaurants. Our historic downtown — rooted in maritime heritage yet refreshed with modern touches — invites you to explore, linger and take in every breathtaking view. To help you begin your journey, we've created sample itineraries that let you explore at your own pace and follow whatever sparks your curiosity.

We are deeply proud of our vibrant small business community, and we encourage you to immerse yourself in the spirit of Gig Harbor by supporting the local shops, restaurants and creative spaces that make this place unlike anywhere else. Each business adds its own story to our collective character and helps keep the magic of our harbor thriving.

As you find your own escape to wonder, we invite you to join the events and traditions that reflect the heart of our community. From the award-winning Maritime Gig Festival each June to our seasonal farmers markets, outdoor summer concerts, year-round live music and the internationally recognized Gig Harbor Film Festival each September, there is always something to experience, celebrate and share.

During your stay, we hope you'll pause often to breathe in the salty sea air, listen to the gentle rhythm of the water and let the charm of Gig Harbor wash over you. Whether you're here for business, pleasure, or a bit of both, we are confident your time in our harbor town will leave you with lasting memories and a renewed desire to return. Visit VisitGigHarbor.com to plan your perfect getaway.

Thank you for choosing to spend time in our beloved town. We wish you a truly memorable stay.

Warm regards,

Miriam Battson

Gig Harbor: a place to wonder

Welcome to Gig Harbor.

Whether you are here for a weekend, an extended stay or have decided to make this your new home, I am glad you found your way to our quaint little fishing village. There is something about arriving in Gig Harbor that encourages you to slow down and breathe a little deeper. The water, the trees and the curve of the shoreline create a sense of calm many of us feel every time we come home even if we've lived here for years and years.

Gig Harbor is a place to wonder. Where small discoveries become lasting memories and simple moments feel meaningful. You might find that sense of wonder while watching the sunlight drift across the bay, exploring a quiet trail, visiting one of our parks or wandering through our historic downtown.

You will also find it in the warmth of our community and in the creativity of the people who choose to live and work here. I regularly hear about how friendly and outgoing our community is and hope you experience that as well.

Our small businesses are the heart of our town. Throughout uptown, downtown and the north end of the city, you will meet local makers, shop owners, chefs, artists and service providers who bring talent and passion to everything they do. Please support them, ask questions and explore their spaces to discover the unique character they each add to Gig Harbor.

Be sure to also take time to enjoy the events and traditions that bring our community together. From summer concerts on the waterfront to seasonal festivals, markets and year-round arts and cultural experiences, there is always something to discover. Learn more about these events and the city at VisitGigHarbor.com. If you are moving here or want to be a regular visitor, sign up for the city's weekly Gig-a-byte newsletter at GigHarborWA.gov to stay connected with local news and community updates.

Most of all, I hope your time in Gig Harbor fills you with the same sense of awe and wonder so many of us feel each day. We are so lucky to live here and share it with you.

If you ever need assistance or would like to connect, please reach out to me at MBarber@GigHarborWA.gov.

Gig Harbor by the season

WINTER

Cozy nights meet coastal magic

Winter in Gig Harbor feels like stepping into a snow globe, only with more rain boots than snowshoes. The calm coastal climate means outdoor adventures never stop. Slip on a raincoat and wander through mossy forests, quiet beaches or cozy neighborhood trails. In town, the holiday season glows with tradition: Holidays in the Harbor illuminates the city, local shops fill with festive finds and the Holiday Village fills with song and cheer. Whether you're catching a local parade, browsing crafts or savoring a quiet evening by the water, winter here blends small-town warmth with Pacific Northwest magic.

SUMMER

More than a season — it's a feeling

Summer in the Pacific Northwest is legendary, and Gig Harbor delivers it in style. Sunny days stretch long but rarely get too hot, perfect for hiking nearby trails or spending lazy afternoons along the waterfront. Music fills evenings with the Summer Concert Series at Uptown and Sehmel Park, and Summer Sounds at Skansie Brothers Park. Local eats taste even better with a sunset view, and festivals and events spill out across town. Add in easy escapes to Mount Rainier, Olympic National Park and nearby ocean beaches. It's clear: summer in Gig Harbor is both a destination and a state of mind.

SPRING

Fresh air and festive fun

Spring wakes up Gig Harbor with color and energy. Farmers markets brim with fresh blooms and seasonal produce, while community favorites like the Garden Tour, Paddlers Cup and Beer Festival return with lively crowds. Rain showers paint everything green, making the ideal backdrop for paddleboarding, kayaking or watching whales cruise by. Longer spring days invite you outdoors for the Fools Run 5k. The harbor feels alive, beckoning you to slow down and savor every detail.

Comfort, color and connection

Fall drapes the harbor in gold. Close by farms overflow with harvest bounty, while local breweries raise a glass to the season around fire pits and tasting rooms. Trails at Gateway Park and beyond transform into tunnels of color, drawing hikers, cyclists and leaf-watchers alike. Cozy corners in cafés, craft breweries and taverns offer indoor comfort. Come Halloween, spot witches paddling through the harbor. Whether you're looking for adventure or autumn hues, fall in Gig Harbor pairs crisp days with a warm embrace.

An invitation to slow down

Crazy life schedules make it hard to consider one more task. And that's exactly why Gig Harbor invites you to exhale and slow down.

The area's natural surroundings immediately steer you into a more relaxed mindset. From there you can follow several routes to relaxation: intentional movement, massage therapy and time outdoors.

Morning

WELLNESS WARMUP

Start the day with calm and focus in a Pilates or yoga session at a local studio. Drop in for a class or schedule a training session for you or a small group.

Asha Yoga offers a variety of hot yoga and non-hot classes that focus on strength, relaxation and connection with mind, body and spirit. At Edge Pilates, a personal training session can help you find exercises best suited for your needs and goals.

Cushman Trail

Late Morning

MID-DAY MASSAGE THERAPY

Leave stress and muscle pain behind with a relaxing session at Monarch Massage & Spa. Massage options range from a classic tension-releasing Swedish massage to a full-spectrum infrared sauna.

The Narrows Bridge

Lunch

DEVOTED KISS CAFÉ

Melty paninis, colorful salads and tasty omelets (breakfast until 2 p.m.!) await you at Devoted Kiss Café. All sauces, soups and pastries are made in-house, and most menu items can be customized to be gluten-free.

Afternoon

TIME WITH THE TREES

Allow yourself a few hours for a date with Mother Nature. Lush forest trails, mesmerizing beaches and scenic views will fill you with “aah.”

Fifty acres of old-growth Douglas fir trees greet you at McCormick Forest Park. Along the 4 miles of trails you’ll catch views down into McCormick Creek Canyon.

If water is your peaceful place, head to Kopachuck State Park. Set out from the beach for a refreshing session of kayaking or paddleboarding. Or simply rest on a driftwood log while taking in the scenic views. Stay long enough and you may be rewarded with one of Kopachuck’s notable sunsets.

TIP: A Washington State Parks Discover Pass is required when visiting Kopachuck. You can buy a day-use Discover Pass online.

Walkers and cyclists can find a longer wellness outing on the Cushman Trail. The paved trail is 12 feet wide and covers nearly 6.2 miles with mixed elevation. Four trailheads offer parking, restrooms and drinking fountains. Along the route you’ll pass through wooded areas and wetlands — great for birdwatching and spotting other wildlife. ♦

Paddle through the harbor

Morning

START AFLOAT AT MARITIME PIER

The water awaits. Start your day on the harbor with a Duffy boat rental. These quaint electric vessels are easy to steer for a smooth glide among colorful houseboats and bobbing sailboats.

If you prefer a route for romance, take a gondola ride with Gig Harbor Gondola and let your guide do the work as you drift under the skyline. You might even score a kiss.

For a more active start, launch a kayak from the public pier and paddle along the shoreline.

In any scenario, keep an eye out for sea stars and harbor seals that tend to say hello.

Lunch

A TOAST AT TIDES TAVERN

Dock and dine at this local icon. Tides Tavern has been a favorite for decades, offering casual waterfront fare with some of the best fish and chips around. Relax on the deck, watch sailors come and go, and refuel for the afternoon ahead.

Afternoon

PADDLE AROUND FOX ISLAND

Drive across the two-lane Fox Island Bridge for a nearby water adventure, with calm waters and scenic views awaiting you and your paddleboard. Launch from under the bridge and trace the shoreline or from Bella Bella Beach. Beneath you, find clear shallows and critters (look, don't touch!). Above you is a sweep of sky that feels endless, marked with a mountain view. It's a quiet stretch of water that rewards a slower pace.

Evening

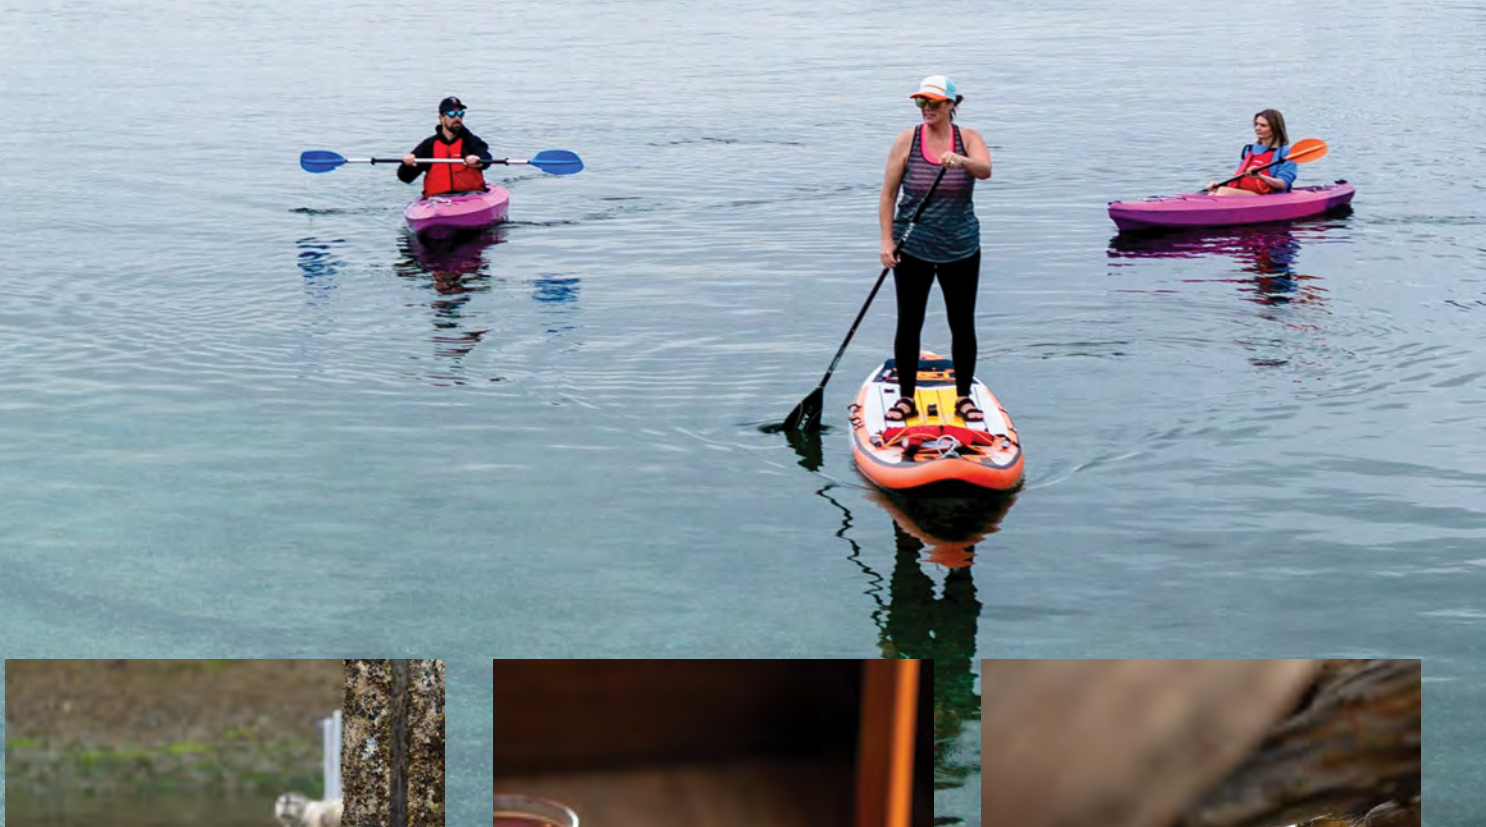

DINNER AND DRINKS AT ZOG'S

Unwind at Zog's for island vibes, good food and local brews. Recall waterfront moments over pizza on the patio lit by a firepit. Plan your next visit with the ease of conversation, offering options for both indoor and outdoor seating. Don't let its gas station locale deter you.

Stay

Sehmel Homestead Park

Trek into the trees for a playdate with nature

Gig Harbor's trees, trails and wildlife are a unique amusement park for a family getaway. Here you can touch marine critters, walk on giant fallen logs, reconnect under nature's canopy and even spend the night in a treehouse!

Morning

SCOUT OUT SEHMELEAD PARK

Spend the morning exploring the trails, forest, wetlands, meadow and demonstration garden at this spacious park in north Gig Harbor. Of the 4 miles of trails, portions are paved while others wind along a boardwalk over the wetlands. Binoculars or a nature checklist will help you and the kids track the many birds, moss, trees and insects you see.

Learn about local plants and historic crops at the on-site WSU Extension demonstration garden, open Wednesdays from 9-11:30 a.m. year-round.

Traveling with kids? Crescent Creek Park and Sehmel Homestead Park have fields and courts for basketball, pickleball, tennis, soccer and baseball. Boundless Playgrounds offer recreation for children of all abilities.

Lunch

DEXTER'S DRIVE-IN

Refuel during your outdoor adventure with a stop at Dexter's Drive-In. Burgers, fries and shakes are served in a retro atmosphere. The menu includes a nod to Gig Harbor's marine heritage with a salmon burger, shrimp burger and oyster basket.

SIX TIPS TO BE A RESPONSIBLE OUTDOOR VISITOR

Let's work together to keep the outdoors a safe, enriching place for all.

Pack it in, pack it out: Take the snack bags and banana peels with you when you leave the forest.

2.

Stay on marked trails: Shrubs can hide uneven ground, and trampled bushes will take time to recover.

3.

Take only photos: Don't pick flowers, berries or leaves.

4.

Keep voices low: A quiet forest is part of its restorative powers. Critters and other visitors also appreciate less noise.

5.

Learn from locals: Ask park staff for tips on safely visiting the site and how you can support their efforts to preserve the natural surroundings.

6.

Visit during less-busy times: Smaller crowds have less impact on the environment, and you'll have a more relaxing outing.

Harbor WildWatch

Afternoon

DIVE INTO HARBOR WILDWATCH

Nature education takes several forms at Harbor WildWatch. The Marine Life Center in the heart of Gig Harbor has a 100-gallon marine touch tank, an animal skull display (including a gray whale), marine life aquariums, microscopes and an interactive scavenger hunt for kids.

Check the Harbor WildWatch events calendar for seasonal, guided walks. You'll learn animal biology, natural history, ecology and human impacts on the environment.

All Harbor WildWatch activities are free and appropriate for all ages.

Late Afternoon

LAZE THROUGH HARBOR FAMILY PARK

Slow the pace of today's nature adventure with a relaxing visit to the leafy forest at Harbor Family Park. The winding, primitive trails offer surprises like fallen logs for balance walking, hidden painted rocks and wildlife. Wear sturdy, comfortable shoes for the maze of unpaved trails in this 19-acre park.

Note that this peaceful escape does not have restrooms or picnic areas.

Extra Credit

WATERFRONT WALKING TOURS

Learn more about Gig Harbor's marine life and history on the "Wonders of the Waterfront" walking tour. Available on Saturdays during the summer months, the 1.5-mile walk is one of a series offered by Gig Harbor Waterfront Alliance in partnership with Harbor WildWatch. When winter and rain rolls in, trade the walking tour for "Pier into the Night" on the 7 Seas Dock to livestream what divers and marine biologists encounter beneath the surface.

Dinner

SUNSET GRILL

Who's hungry? Hearty plates await you for a casual dinner at Sunset Grill. Pasta, sandwiches, burgers and all-day breakfast offer lots of kid-friendly choices. Popular picks for grownups are the open-face crab melt and fish and chips.

TIP: Hours vary, so check before you go.

Stay

NO CABBAGES BED & BREAKFAST

You won't find a more perfect overnight stay for this trip: a treehouse! No Cabbages Bed & Breakfast is nestled in the trees and is a short walk from Sunset Beach. Relax in the rustic décor, wander the on-site labyrinth and wake up with a tasty homemade breakfast. ♦

Crescent Creek Park

TIPS FOR VISITORS

Plan ahead for varied terrain.

Some parks have paved paths while others offer primitive trails, so sturdy shoes and layers will help you stay comfortable as you explore.

Check hours and seasonal schedules for places like the Marine Life Center, walking tours and the demonstration garden to make the most of your day.

Keep a small daypack handy with water, snacks and wipes, especially if you're traveling with kids or plan to linger in the forest.

TIPS FOR RELOCATORS

Explore parks in different seasons to get a feel for the year-round rhythms of Gig Harbor's outdoor spaces. You'll learn quickly which spots become your regular retreats.

Connect with local groups such as Harbor WildWatch or the WSU Extension to meet neighbors and learn about stewardship efforts in your new community.

Pay attention to amenities in each neighborhood park. Features like playgrounds, courts, trail access and parking can help you narrow down which areas fit your lifestyle.

Sehmel Homestead Park

HARBOR IN MOTION

*work up a sweat
by the Sound*

Set your pace, find your flow

When the day breaks at water's edge, sweeping views of the Narrows Bridge rise with you. The salt air, sound of gulls and gentle waves set the pace for a day of moving with intention. Whether you're running, walking or simply warming up, the Sound sets a natural rhythm that carries you forward with purpose.

Morning

TREK WITH THE NARROWS

Start your day at Narrows Beach, where the Northwest sand and remarkable rocks dot the shoreline and Mount Rainier peeks above. The mist off the Sound will keep you refreshed and makes for an invigorating hike. A seal or Orca may swim by in your final stretch. This spot is a special reminder that motion and peace coexist for a meditative run in Gig Harbor.

Lunch

REFUEL AT THE HUB

When you cross the finish line, make your way to The Hub at Narrows Airport for a refueling bite and a front-row seat to small planes soaring and landing. Many pilots are either learning or hobbyists who occasionally boast a trick or maneuver worthy of applause. Order local favorites like the seasonal hummus or roasted beet salad with toasted Washington hazelnuts.

PAWS ON THE HARBOR

One dog's guide to discovering adventure, treats and tail wags in Gig Harbor

When my human said the words "Gig Harbor," I didn't know what it meant, but I knew it had to be good. We hopped in the car, windows down, and I stuck my head out so my ears could flap and my tongue could fly. The air smelled different over the bridge: like salt and cedar and something exciting waiting just for me.

TRAILS MADE FOR TAILS

Our first adventure was at Narrows Beach. I trotted proudly, nose to the sky, catching every pine scent I could. My human laughed when I spotted a seal friend and barked to get its attention. That's the thing about walks here: they make both of us smile.

Later we explored Rotary Dog Park, where there was space to run and fetch until my paws were tired and my tail was still wagging. By the time we reached Kopachuck State Park, the tide pools were barking my name. I splashed in the shallows, stuck my wet nose into seaweed and tried to bring home a log that was far too big. My human said no, but I could tell they admired my determination. I admire theirs too.

DOWNTOWN DOGS AND HARBOR HANGS

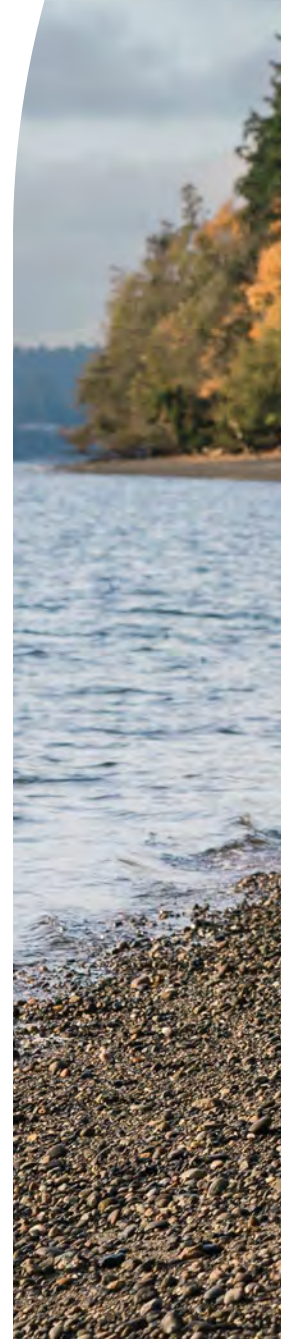

Downtown was just as wonderful. So many friendly hands reached out to pet me, and every one of them made me happy. We found a waterfront patio spot at Netshed No. 9 where my human ate a giant cinnamon roll. I got a water bowl and more ear scratches than I could count. Later, we stopped at Lucky Dog for "me time." I met a few other dogs, and I soaked up every bit of attention like the loyal pup I am.

SUNSET AND SNUGGLES

When the day slowed, we sat by the harbor to watch the sunset. Boats rocked gently, the sky turned gold and pink and the last light shimmered across the water. I curled up at my human's feet, tired in the best way, nose still damp from the tide.

I may not understand everything about Gig Harbor, but I know this: it is a place made for adventure, for treats, for fetch, for sunsets and for being by my human's side. ♦

Narrows Beach

TIP FOR VISITORS

Gig Harbor's walkable waterfront and dog-friendly patios make it easy to explore. Just bring a leash, water, a poop bag and a few treats.

TIP FOR RELOCATORS

Try a new trail each season. Your pup will love the fresh sniffs (and you'll love the views).

Ease into the evening at Fondi, where awkward first date “tell me about yourself” scripts flow a little easier, just like the house Chianti. The scent of tomato and charred crust wafts from the open kitchen, and every table feels like a corner meant just for the two of you.

Here, laughter carries and time slows, with an end just in time for the movie next door. Stroll hand in hand to Galaxy Theatres, steps from the restaurant. Find thrill in an adventure film or your future in a romantic comedy. It's a classic date: dinner and a movie!

Romantic tip: Split a slice of cheesecake at Fondi before the flick. It's a playful way to extend the night, and a little sweetness sets the tone for the rest of the date.

Upon arrival, floor-to-ceiling windows frame a romantic waterfront view. Singing seagulls overhead mix with the scent of salt and grilled salmon. SPRUCE HILL your dining experience means eating by the season, paying attention to the first spring greens, the height of summer berries and the return of salmon to regional waters. Local chefs follow these natural changes, shifting their menus as harvests peak, drawing on the best of what the Pacific Northwest provides.
WINERY

In Gig Harbor,

From slow morning fog to the soft shine of twilight on wine glasses, ingredients arrive through thoughtful partnerships with farmers, foragers and reputable fishers across the region. Fresh and seasonal, each plate carries the flavor of the moment and the company you share it with.

Navigate your way through four distinct dining experiences:

FROM TIDE

TIPS FOR VISITORS

Book early. Brix 25° and Greenhouse fill quickly on weekends.

Pair local. Choose wine and beer from Washington vineyards and breweries to deepen the regional experience.

Stay the night. Downtown Gig Harbor's waterfront sidewalk connects many restaurants with charming lodging.

TIPS FOR RELOCATORS

Local chefs and entrepreneurs often host events like winemaker dinners and seasonal tasting nights.

Find balance on both ends of the dining spectrum. Fine dining and family-owned cafés, as well as quick counter-top spots and multi-course menus, all share the same relaxed Northwest energy.

Find more local bites at VisitGigHarbor.com/Eat

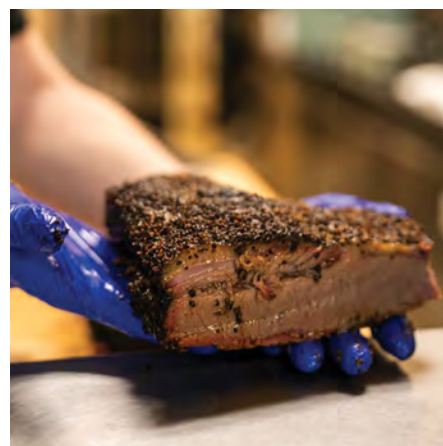

Tide Meets Table

MORSO BISTRO

Crowned above a view, Morso Bistro feels like a love letter to the taste of the Northwest. The kitchen sources fresh seafood from the Puget Sound and the Pacific Northwest. Halibut, clams and crab, paired with produce from small Washington farms and Willamette Valley cheeses, make for an easy lunch or dinner. You'll find light and seasonal plates designed for a seat near the window as boats float by. Let a glass of Washington sauvignon blanc set the tone for the evening ahead.

*dine where the season
guides every plate*

TO TABLE

Currents of Flavor BRIX 25°

The menu leans into the philosophy of “local first” at Brix 25°. Its namesake is the scale that measures sugar in wine, representing balance, precision and craftsmanship found in every order here.

Brix 25° partners with regional fishermen and oyster farmers to bring the Sound’s bounty directly to the table. You might find cedar-plank salmon from the Washington coast, tenderloin from Pierce County farms or local clams in a wine broth with history from neighboring vineyards. Mount Rainier is your tapestry in the distance as you savor the city’s defining view, enjoying a plate that feels undeniably Gig Harbor.

Anchored in Season GREENHOUSE

At Greenhouse in Uptown Gig Harbor, the tide-to-table story takes on an urban edge. Executive chef and owner Erik S. Smith crafts every dish to order, ensuring the plate arrives steaming and fresh with responsibly sourced ingredients from growers and producers across the region.

The menu balances land and sea: line-caught lingcod, salmon and lamb from Washington’s pastures with seasonal vegetables and a local pinot noir. Be sure to try a lavender gin cocktail or a specialty drink with a bubble on top.

Smoke and Salt BBQ2U

Don’t let the casual BBQ vibe fool you. Behind the smoker is a commitment to fresh ingredients that elevate every bite.

Owner Gary Parker built his reputation on authentic barbecue. The meat takes center stage at BBQ2U, with Northwest grain-fed beef. To create the magical smoke that their meats are known for, post oak is sourced directly from Texas. The brisket is smoked for 14 hours, the pulled pork is slow cooked over hickory and the ribs fall right off the bone. Guaranteed. ♦

SIP by the SOUND

Coffee, tea and the calm that comes with a cup in hand

The first sip is its own small escape, steam curling into the morning air, the soft whirl of grinders setting an easy rhythm. From coffee bars tucked behind storefronts to dockside shots, Gig Harbor cafés are a glimpse into local life. Whether you're fueled by caffeine or keeping it mellow, every cup here carries a little taste of wonder.

FUSION CAFÉ & LOUNGE

A Sweet Start Downtown

Just off Judson Street, Fusion Café & Lounge delivers with a sprinkle of joy. Family-owned and with character to match, this downtown stop pairs craft coffee with inventive treats that have flair. Locals line up early for maple bacon, berry glaze and the many other donut concoctions to choose from. Snag a box for the entire family on the go or find a bench by the waterfront and let sweetness with a twist carry you into your day.

JAVA & CLAY CAFÉ

Sip, Create, Repeat

Half coffee shop, half pottery studio, Java & Clay invites you to take a seat at a paint-splashed table with a latte. Once situated, choose a brush to bring color to a blank mug or dish. This fresh take on a coffee shop will summon your inner artist.

KIMBALL COFFEEHOUSE

A Local Landmark

Crowned with twinkling lights and walls adorned with local art, Kimball Coffeehouse has been a loyal staple for decades. Seasonal drinks and house-made treats are a regional attraction! After you order, take a short walk to the waterfront with a cup in hand.

PEARL TEA

Modern Taste, Harbor Heart

In Uptown Gig Harbor, Pearl Tea is renowned for its bubble teas, matcha blends and adventurous drinks. Whether you're wandering the outdoor mall or pausing mid-errand for a sweet break, this spot serves up weekend-calm meets modern-energy with warm light, fresh treats and the kind of comfort you can taste. ♦

TIPS FOR VISITORS

Start early. Morning light over the harbor is worth the alarm clock. Watch the sunrise at Old Ferry Landing Park.

Whether you're in the mood for wine, cider, beer or something beautifully shaken, these are the places where flavor meets atmosphere — and lingering is encouraged.

7 SEAS BREWING

Craft Taps

7 Seas Brewing is a legend of the Puget Sound beer scene. A quaint taproom steps from the water is home to Northwest-style IPAs and specialty stouts. Order a pint and settle in near roll-up doors or relax by the outdoor fireplaces. Bonus points if you travel by water and dock at the brewery.

CUVÉE WINE + VINYL BAR

Continental Charm

Cuvée is a candlelit, specialty wine bar that invites you to leave your worries behind and savor unique pours with intention. As the needle drops on vinyl, nostalgia pairs with your favorite French rosé or a local pinot noir.

GIG HARBOR WINE CO.

The Familiar Pour

Pours feel personalized here. Come for curated tastings and stay for an unhurried evening. Take home a bottle of their Netshed Red and waive the tasting fee!

HY IU HEE HEE

Cocktails Galore

Hy Iu Hee Hee adds a dash of mischief to Gig Harbor. Just off the main stretch of downtown, it's the kind of night out with friends you need. Station yourself at the bar or post up at a table. Drinks pair well here with locally sourced (and stacked!) burgers.

LOCUST CIDER

Northwest Crisp

Locust Cider features a more playful experience with a retro arcade. Choose from classic core varieties to small-batch blends with a hint of berries and hops. The bright, communal vibe makes it a natural bookend to any adventure.

HIDDEN HARBOR WINE LIBRARY

Sip in Secret

Tucked quietly on the harbor, Hidden Harbor Wine Library offers an intimate and refined experience only local insiders know about. Settle in for a flight, discover a new favorite vintage pour, or savor a glass in a space made for relaxing evenings and friendly conversations. ♦

BOUTIQUES AND FLAVORFUL FINDS

Wander through downtown's array of small shops and boutiques.

Dolly Mama Boutique and Dolly Mama Too offer modern coastal style. Each corner of the downtown location is adorned with handmade jewelry and small-batch clothing. Up the street, the hillside location includes decor that matches the charm of the harbor.

Steps away, find For the Love of Spice, a fragrant stop for gourmet seasoning, rubs and spices sourced and mixed in-house. The air is rich with aromas like citrus peel and smoked paprika, which makes for an exciting sensory experience.

Down the street, Fox Island Trading Company features a curation of maritime-inspired gifts. Hand-carved boards, nautical prints and candles poured with joy make a great gift.

Afternoon

MARKET TIME FOR HANDWOVEN FINDS

Continue your day with a celebration of community at the Gig Harbor Waterfront Farmers Market. The waterfront comes alive in late spring through early fall. Underneath white tents, you'll meet potters with color-glazed mugs, weavers with coastal textiles and jewelers shaping glass with seafaring origins. Seasonal flowers spill from the stands, and the scent of lavender blends with the aroma of espresso and freshly baked bread.

Even in winter, indoor shops keep local craftsmanship alive. Stop at Beach Basket Gifts & Garden. This long-loved shop feels like a cottage offering garden décor, clothes and gifts inspired by the Puget Sound. Pacific Northwest artists make many pieces, and the displays shift with the seasons, so there's always something new to uncover. ♦

TIPS FOR VISITORS

Some shops close early; plan to explore downtown before 5 p.m.

Bring a reusable bag! Those who shop sustainably live like a local.

Ask artists about their craft (some accept custom requests!).

TIPS FOR RELOCATORS

Follow small businesses like Dolly Mama Boutique for pop-up events.

EDUCATION

PENINSULA SCHOOL DISTRICT

Peninsula School District (PSD) serves the greater Gig Harbor area and is recognized as one of Washington state's most innovative and high-performing districts. Historically, the district achieves test score averages that place it in the top 10% of public schools statewide.

PSD serves a world-class education to more than 9,000 students across 17 schools, including 10 elementary schools, four middle schools and three high schools. The district spans 120 square miles across the stunning Puget Sound scenery serving Gig Harbor and Key Peninsula.

The district's Strategic Plan vision aims "to inspire and empower every child, every day." This vision creates alignment between district goals and innovative classroom work, capturing the excellence, character, confidence, curiosity and culture that make PSD a leader in education.

In addition to robust middle and high school athletic programs, fine arts options and extracurricular activities designed to cultivate intellectual growth and leadership, PSD offers unique learning experiences as part of the League of Innovative Schools. One such example is talented elementary students who recently tackled real-world challenges through FIRST LEGO League.

Innovation goes beyond the classroom. Programs like Eagle Quest weave outdoor learning directly into the school day, inviting students to study bird migrations, test water quality and track coastal species alongside local experts.

The district is also proud to have launched the Aviation Academy with partners Boeing and the Museum of Flight, where high schoolers get hands-on experience in aerospace technology that opens pathways to aviation careers. The district's Performance Drone Team, only the second public high school team in the nation, showcases student talent through breathtaking displays featuring 300 drones.

Families relocating to Gig Harbor will discover a district that sees every child's potential as something to nurture deliberately and creatively, from STEM exploration to arts education, where music programs consistently earn top regional and statewide honors.

A sense of belonging also runs through the district's work, making it especially appealing to families seeking a welcoming community. Peninsula High School earned national recognition as a Special Olympics Unified Champion School, reflecting a culture where students of all abilities learn and play side by side. Military-connected families are supported through Purple Star distinction and year-round events designed to ease transitions and celebrate service.

PSD is a district that invests in the whole child, offering not only world-class academics but a rich network of partnerships, experiences and pathways that help young people grow with confidence and curiosity.

PRIVATE SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

In addition to public schools, Gig Harbor offers eight private schools, catering to over 1,000 students. These institutions offer a range of educational philosophies, including Christian, Catholic and Montessori options for children from preschool through high school. The private schools in the area consistently rank in the top 20% across Washington state.

For many high school graduates and adults seeking further education, Tacoma Community College serves as a popular choice, with campuses located in Gig Harbor and across the Narrows in Tacoma. It provides an accessible pathway for those looking to continue, resume or complete their education. Moreover, several accredited higher education institutions are within commuting distance, including Bates Technical College, Clover Park Technical College, Faith International University, Olympic College, Pacific Lutheran University, Pierce College, University of Puget Sound and the University of Washington Tacoma. ♦

The hospital also offers specialty services, which includes cardiology, neurology, spine care, cancer care, orthopedics, gynecologic surgery, urology, diabetes care and more. There is also access to convenience of care with integrated medical office buildings and pavilions, housing a variety of medical specialties and services in one place. The hospital's amenities include spacious private rooms that comfortably accommodate overnight visitors, the Snuffin Healing Garden which provides a gentle and peaceful outdoor escape, and an award-winning café. The Jane Thompson Russell Cancer Care Center brings together Puget Sound's leading cancer care specialists from Virginia Mason Franciscan Health, Peninsula Radiation Oncology and Northwest Medical Specialties. Virginia Mason Franciscan Health also operates the Milgard Medical Pavilion on Canterwood Boulevard with a variety of clinics that provide breast care, dental care, orthopedics, women's health, pharmacy, infusion services, physical medicine and rehabilitation, including therapy services and a prompt care facility and medical offices located on Point Fosdick Drive in Uptown.

MULTICARE

MultiCare is a not-for-profit health care organization that has been serving the Gig Harbor-Kitsap-Peninsula community for more than 15 years. Located in the MultiCare Gig Harbor Medical Park on Point Fosdick Drive, it provides a comprehensive medical facility with services featuring the MultiCare Cancer Institute (oncology infusion, radiation oncology and a new medical/surgical oncology clinic coming in 2026), breast health services, ear-nose-and-throat, endocrinology, laboratory, mammography, medical imaging, neurology, obstetrics and gynecology, orthopedics, pharmacy, podiatry, primary care, cardiac rehab (with Pulse Heart Institute) and an outpatient surgery area. Within the medical park is the Medical Park's Gift Shop, which offers locally made and sustainably sourced products to support your health journey; the proceeds of which stay local, supporting our patients and providers at the MultiCare Gig Harbor Medical Park.

MultiCare has collaborated with YMCA of Pierce and Kitsap Counties, a partnership focused on improving the health and wellness of our community. MultiCare has a clinic on the second floor of the Tom Taylor Family YMCA in Gig Harbor, which offers aquatic therapy, hand therapy, physical therapy, massage and nutritional services. Collaboration at the MultiCare Gig Harbor Medical Park continues to expand as we look to help serve and engage with the community.

Also under the MultiCare umbrella is the Mary Bridge Children's Outpatient Center on Point Fosdick Drive in Gig Harbor. This outpatient center offers advanced pediatric specialty care with convenient drop-in pediatric urgent care, specialty clinics and therapy services.

Mary Bridge specialists travel from Tacoma to the Gig Harbor outpatient center and work closely with primary providers to coordinate trusted care. These pediatric experts are part of Mary Bridge Children's Hospital in Tacoma, part of MultiCare Health System, ranked one of the nation's top children's hospitals.

COMPLEMENTARY AND ALTERNATIVE MEDICINE

Gig Harbor's medical community provides numerous avenues of alternative and complementary medical care, including preventive care and resources. Patients seeking alternative treatments will be pleased to find a wide variety of chiropractors, naturopathic medicine, acupuncture and other non-traditional therapies.

The Peninsula Natural Health Center is a premier health care center for all ages that offers compassionate, non-judgmental treatment in a holistic manner. The center emphasizes prevention and treatment of every individual as a unique and whole person with the understanding that the body has an inherent ability to heal itself. Commonly treated conditions include digestive issues, allergies, chronic pain, hormonal imbalances, fertility problems and more.

Another alternative medicine option available is Gig Harbor Revitalize Metabolic Health. This pioneering direct care clinic caters to individuals of all ages, offering personalized medical solutions that blend time-tested ancestral health principles with cutting-edge innovations. Born from the need to prioritize preventive care in a system that often emphasizes sick care, Revitalize Metabolic Health is on a mission to revolutionize health care delivery.

With years of experience managing metabolic diseases in hospital settings, the clinic's founders bring invaluable insights into addressing health issues before complications arise. By focusing on early intervention and tailored treatments, they unlock the potential for profound improvements in patients' health and overall well-being.

RMH champions the direct care model, liberating patients from the constraints imposed by insurance companies and governmental bureaucracies. This cash-pay approach restores the crucial one-on-one relationship between patient and physician, fostering an environment where health care decisions are based solely on what is best for the patient. ♦

VINTAGE AERO MUSEUM

Where History Takes Flight

Few places rival the Gig Harbor Vintage Aero Museum. Set inside a hangar at The Tacoma Narrows Airport with restored WWII style aircrafts, this venue is part museum and part event space, sparking your imagination with tales of aviation's past. The space pays homage to the golden age of flight with shiny planes, towering doors that open onto the runway outside and displays that celebrate aviation as an art form.

As guests mingle underneath suspended aircraft, presentations unfold on polished floors and every event photo captures the spirit of motion and legacy. The museum's team offers flexible floor plans for up to 300 guests, ideal for corporate meetings, fundraisers and receptions, along with audiovisual support and ample parking. It's large enough to accommodate planes, so there's enough parking for vehicles of any size.

The Gig Harbor Vintage Aero Museum is a symbol of craft, precision and vision, similar to the cornerstones that fuel Gig Harbor's business community. ♦
